MSDS Information

As defined in the OSHA Hazard Communication Standard, 29 CFR 1910.1200 articles do not require a MSDS / SDS.

Articles are defined by:

An "article" means a manufactured item: (1) which is formed to a specific shape or design during manufacture (2) which has end use function(s) dependent in whole or in part upon its shape or design during end use; and (3) which does not release, or otherwise result in exposure to, a hazardous chemical under normal conditions of use. Any product which meets the definition of an "article," would be exempt from the requirements of the Standard.

Sinclair & Rush Ltd considers all finished parts as "articles" and as such they do not require an accompanying MSDS / SDS.

If you require a MSDS for the materials within the articles please contact osbma@sinclair-rush.co.uk
